

Internship – Development of company activity in the Eastern markets

KRD Global Group Sp. z o.o.

We are a company created in 2011 in Warsaw by a group of specialists in the domain of innovative green technologies and renewable energies, with extensive knowledge in the field and experience gained in international markets as Spain, Portugal, Italy, UK and Poland among others. Our offer includes development, design and construction of "turnkey" solar photovoltaic systems so as comprehensive advisory services in the area of renewable energy. We are characterized by a deep knowledge of the local conditions of each specific project. We are daily up to date with global trends. While working with us, you can count on being part of the technological and energy change already taking place in the world.

Currently, we are looking for Intern to join our Renewable Energy team in Warsaw.

Position Qualifications

Are You

- a Technical and/or Business Management/Marketing university student? Or recent graduate?
- passionate about green technologies and renewable energies? knowledge about solar energy?
- confident in Polish, English and native in Ukrainian/Russian?
- interested in business development? eager to be involved in international projects?
- team- oriented and with good communication skills?

If yes, we invite You to be a part of our Renewable Energy team in Warsaw

As an Energy Intern You will

- work together with our experienced colleagues on real projects
- strength your personal competencies in renewable energy field
- learn about international organization providing services globally

Your key responsibilities will be

- market studies

- Initial project documentation review
- conceptual project design
- discussion with providers, partners, costumers
- general support to the technical and business development teams

We offer You

- initial trial period followed by a paid internship
- flexible working hours
- learning about newest trends and technologies
- pleasant working atmosphere and support of your more experience team mates

Email address: hr@krdglobalgroup.com